Live Auction:

Musical Salon, featuring Greg Funfgeld and Dashon Burton

This unique, intimate evening of music will feature one of The Choir’s favorite soloists, DASHON BURTON, with our Artistic Director and Conductor, Greg Funfgeld, accompanying at the piano. Treat yourself and your friends and family to this wonderful musical offering – including operatic arias, Bach arias, and songs from American musical theatre, spirituals, and more. The Salon may be held in the Parlor of Heckewelder House, The Bach Choir’s home in historic Bethlehem; in one of the buildings of Historic Bethlehem; or in your own home. Dashon and Greg are willing to travel for a mutually agreed upon date. A private concert in your home or in one of these intimate spaces is a memorable way to experience glorious music and sublime artistry!

Opening bid: $1,500 Value: Priceless

A rare opportunity to explore The J.P Morgan Library, New York City

In 1924, J.P. Morgan, Jr. gave his father’s extraordinary library to the public. The most influential financier in this country’s history, Morgan was also a voracious collector. He bought on an astonishing scale, collecting art objects in virtually every medium, including rare books, musical manuscripts, prints, drawings and ancient artifacts that make up the core of this astonishing collection. The Morgan Library has one of the finest collections of musical manuscripts in the world, usually available only to scholars and performers. Step back in time and enjoy a private visit to this treasure trove, accompanied by Artistic Director and Conductor, Greg Funfgeld, hosted by Fran Barulich, Curator of Musical Manuscripts. This singular opportunity will include the rare opportunity to see priceless manuscripts by Bach, Mozart, Beethoven, Wagner, and many more, including composers that may be of special interest to the successful bidder. Transportation is provided and a festive lunch will follow this unforgettable adventure!

Opening bid: $1,000 Value: Priceless

Original Heckewelder House painting by Ben Fortunado Marcune

Ben Fortunado Marcune is a nationally acclaimed sculptor and painter. A fellow of the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, Ben is the recipient of the 1997 Arts Ovation Award and Special Congressional Recognition for outstanding achievement in the visual arts, his oil paintings and sculptures have been commissioned by numerous educational institutions, corporations and private collectors. The Bach Choir is honored to offer his magnificent oil painting of our home, Heckewelder House, at this year's Gala. This historic home has been the perfect environment for the Choir to thrive and grow; this stunning painting will commemorate the Choir's roots in Bethlehem for many years to come. Your winning bid includes a private tour of the artist's studio and his work. Special note: In honor of Greg Funfgeld's 35th Anniversary with the Choir, the proceeds from this auction item will help support this season's work as part of the Artistic Director and Conductor's Fund.

Youth Meets Bach

Education and Community Outreach Programs: The Heart of our Gala – would like to include 4 – 5 images – and we can use 4C here – see the map.

Your support means so much to The Choir's Educational Programs. Funds raised at the 2017 Gala benefit The Choir's educational and community outreach, including:

Bach at Noon

A series of ten free concerts per year, seven held at Bethlehem's Central Moravian Church and a summer series of three in Allentown's St. John's Lutheran Church. Each concert attracts an audience of between 600 and 1,000 people, including school groups. Our 90th Bach at Noon will be held on November 14, 2017.

Bach to School

Now in its 24th year, Bach to School has been presented for more than 115,000 students with eight concerts annually in elementary, middle and high schools. It offers pre-concert and follow-up activities to encourage and develop a love of Bach and classical performance.

Family Concert

Since 2000, the annual Family Concert has introduced the music of Bach in imaginative programs including dance, theater, poetry, opera, visual arts and participation by young artists. It's a wonderful way for families to enjoy the music of Bach together.

Festival Outreach and Youth Involvement

Our annual Bach Festival now includes an expanded program that offers more opportunities for participation and young talent. Starting in 2015, we added the following: Pre-concert outdoor/lobby performances by exceptional youth ensembles such as the Young People's Philharmonic brass ensemble, the Lehigh Valley Suzuki Violin Program, and the Bel Canto Children's Chorus of The Bach Choir of Bethlehem. We have also added young instrumentalists to the Saturday morning Bach Festival Orchestra concerts, as well as Bach Chorale singing sessions with Greg Funfgeld and Zimmermann's Coffee House, which showcases baroque chamber music by local young performers.

Youth Meets Bach

Youth Meets Bach, a special educational fund, helps support the Bach to School program in a very specific way, by helping families attend our Christmas, Family and selected Festival concerts. Through Youth Meets Bach, young people hear and enjoy the music of J.S. Bach and experience a live musical performance, perhaps for the first time. Your contribution to that experience could be truly life-changing for some of these students, where limited family income may not offer opportunities for concert attendance. A contribution of $50 makes it possible for 7 students to attend the Family Concert. Contributing $100 will make it possible for 12 students to attend a Bach to School program.

This auction item is unlimited and we will gratefully accept your bids all evening!! Please become part of the outreach and make a difference to thousands of students around the Lehigh Valley.
